She did just that with her special performances on the night, which included a medley of her most famous hits, including Mayores and Sin Pijama, and a performance by Mike Towers. It's a great blessing for me to be able to get the opportunities I had in my career at a young age, she tells Billboard.Becky also won the Latin AMA's favorite female artist category. Watch the full interview above. 2019 Billboard Latin Music Awards delivered! On Thursday night, the hottest acts in Latin music united at the Mandalay Bay Events Center in Las Vegas, Nevada, to honor the incredible work they've done over the past year - and ET was live blogging along the way. ET Live was on the red carpet with Latinx artists such as Becky G, CNCO, Karol G, Reik and Anitta before the show, when ETonline brought you the night's biggest highlights. Marc Anthony, Ozuna, Luis Fonsi, J Balvin, Rosalía, Sean Paul, Bad Bunny took the stage to perform - but it was Ozuna who was the event's clear winner, with 11 total awards on Thursday. Reggaetonero broke records for the most wins in a night, but also made a big impact with his performance. Check out the night's biggest moments below. 8:06 p.m.: Carlos Vives nears the end with a jammin' performance of Si Me Das Tu Amor with Wisin - giving the audience one last song to dance to. 8:03 p.m.: Ozuna! Reggaetonero apparently takes home every prize tonight - or at least the majority. Ozuna's win for Artist of the Year brings his total to 11, breaking the record for most wins in one year. 7:55pm: Ozuna, DJ Snake, Daddy Yankee and Anuel AA gave us one of the most captivating, electric performances of the night, with a medley of Taki Taki and Baila, Baila, Baila. 7:50pm: Romeo Santos couldn't believe he ended up beating Marc Anthony (and Carlos Vives and Prince Royce) in a category - but he did, for Tropical Artist of the Year, Solo. In his acceptance speech, the 37-year-old singer said he knows urban music has a moment and he himself has benefited from it, but tropical artists must keep working hard. 7:47pm: Bad Bunny beat out Anitta, Anuel AA and Lali for his latest award, which he joked that he didn't know he won because he was on Instagram. Suitable for our new social artist of the year! 7:36pm: The pair of the night started their sultry performance of Secreto and Culpables wrapped around each other on a sexy before they take their moves closer to the audience. Plenty of PDA and bumpin' and grinding followed, before ending their performance by taking a makeout-filled shower on stage. Yup! 7:35 p.m.: After their big Romeo Santos performance, Aventura wins Tropical Artist of the Year, Duo or Group! We back, baby, you know how we do! they shout while accepting the prize.7:31: Casper Mágico, Nio García, Darell, Nicky Jam, Ozuna and Bad Bunnys Te Boté win Hot Latin Song of the Year - giving Ozuna another award tonight. Merecido reconocimiento al maestro, #JuanLuisGuerra en #Billboards2019 por su increíble Trayectoria Artística. ¡Bravo! pic.twitter.com/GKxBilAba3 — Premios Billboard (@LatinBillboards) April 26, 20197:19 PM: The Dominican artist receives a heartfelt tribute with performances by Burbujas de Amor by Kate Garcia, La Travesía of Fonseca and Ojala Que Llavea Café by Pedro Capo. Juanes then jumped back on stage to present the legend with a special award. A standing ovation followed, as Guerra thanked his family, his team and the Dominican Republic. 7:14pm: Luis Fonsi, Sebastian Yatra and Nicky Jam get us out of our chairs with their hip-shaking performance of Date La Vuelta. 19:06: Me Niego was the winning track in the Latin Pop Song of the Year category, which included Enrique Iglesias and Bad Bunny's El Baño, Luis Fonsi and Demi Lovato's Echáme La Culpa and Shakira and Maluma's Clandestino. Reik, Ozuna and Wisin took the stage to accept the award together. 7pm: Arriving on stage on a floating jet ski is none other than Bad Bunny, which lives up the crowd with its performances of 200 MPH and Tenemos Que Hablar. 6:55 p.m.: Regional Mexican Song of the Year goes to Raymix - who sang his acceptance speech for Oye Mujer. ¡Felicidades! 6:47 pm: We were promised a bewitching performance by Romeo Santos, and he delivered! Performances by Immortal with Aventura and La Demanda caused the audience to cheer loudly. 6:39 p.m.: In a stacked category with Becky G, Jennifer Lopez and Karol G, Natti Natasha won The Hot Latin Songs Artist of the Year, Female. The 32-year-old singer was unfortunately not able to do the show, but as she is ill, I hope to resume my schedule as soon as possible, she wrote on her Instagram Story. 6:45pm: Hot off their win, the boy band dances it out with a high energy performance by Late, dressed in coordinating red and highlighter yellow look. 6:29 pm: Banda Sinaloense MS de Sergio Lizárraga brings the heartfelt passion we have not yet seen on stage with the songs El Color de Tus Ojos and Por Siempre Mi Amor. 6:26 pm: DY takes home Digital Song of the Year for Dura - but is not here to accept its award. It doesn't stop Gabi Espino and Carlos Vives from dancing to their song, butt6:15: Ozuna and Nicky Jam do their song Te Robaré justice with a dynamic performance on stage - proving why it has become such a hit! 6:10pm: Carlos Vives is here to introduce his band, ChocQuibTown, which gives us another introduction - present the award for Regional Mexican Artist of the Year, Duo or Group to Banda Sinaloense MS de Sergio Lizárraga. 6:03 p.m.: CNCO are winners at their third consecutive Billboard Latin Music Awards, taking home Latin Pop Artist of the Year, Duo or Group over Maná, Piso 21 and Reik.5:57 PM: Rosalía, El Guincho and J Balvin are here to hypnotize the audience with their performance of Con Altura - before Sean Paul comes to sing his song with Balvin, La Contra Pared. 17:52: Ozuna gets its second award of the night with Tropical Song of the Year for her song with Romeo Santos, Sobredosis! 5:45pm: Becky G and Anitta teased their performance of Banana would be just like sexy music video - and they're right! The ladies spice up the scene with a sultry performance of their new track. ¡Señores el ganador al premio Artista del Año, Debut es @Anuel_2bleA! pic.twitter.com/hbSSmCRuKn - Premios Billboard (@LatinBillboards) April 26, 20195:43 PM: Anuel AA is our new artist of the year, beating out her fiancé, Karol G. He gives his speech short but gives a sweet shout-out to his lady love!5:34 PM: Ozuna wins his first award of the night for Latin Rhythm Artist of the Year, Solo - and we have a feeling that he will win many more, as he leads the night's nominations with a total of 23 nods in 15 categories.5:31: Sebastián Yatra and Reik slow things down with the TV performance premiere of her song Un Año. ¡Upa! #BadBunny cantando a capella en los #Billboards2019pic.twitter.com/kNrxDJpw2R— Premios Billboard (@LatinBillboards) April 26, 20195:26: Adriel Favela and Javier Rosas perform the song La Escuela No Me Gustó before throwing it back to Gabi Espino and Bad Bunny - who can't help but sing it out. Muchas gracias familia! Nicky says before you thank Balvin. You're a brother, you're a friend, Balvin retaliates before they squeeze it out. 17:11: Bad Bunny and Gabi Espino present the award for Hot Latin Songs Artist of the Year, Duo or Group to Banda Sinaloense MS de Sergio Lizárraga! 5:05 pm: Marc Anthony is next - killing the scene with the sweet sounds of parecén Viernes. 5:03pm: Wisin & Yandel and Romeo Santos take the stage to open the show with Aullando - and the audience is on their feet!5:01: [I feel] proud of all my brothers, Ozuna, Yankee, Bad Bunny, what these guys do, they break records, we break barriers, he gushes on the red carpet. I'm proud of them, and we're having fun. 16:56: Capo is as obsessed with Alicia Keys' Con Calma remix as we are! She was in Tulum, Mexico... She being a part of it, he said of how quickly the remix came together. The song has blessed me in so many ways, and nothing has been forced. He also has a lot of gratitude for Rosalía for giving Keys a couple of Spanish lessons. Thank you, Rosalía, mant' Help my girl out!, he says. 4:53 p.m.: The Colombian singer is at the top of everyone's lists for collaboration, and he's open to working with anyone. Embrace our culture and try to take it to another level, he says about what it takes to get a song in the works. Next up is his track with Chris Brown and Tyga. Of course we have to keep hitting until the summer, he said. And fresh off Balvin's set at Coachella - which he said was 15 years in the making - reggaetonero feels humble. I think we need to represent the culture and movement, and we need to show love to AND that opened its doors for us, he shares.4:51 PM: Karol G and Anuel AA are here - and opens up about their engagement. There are no words to explain, Says Anuel when asked about their happiness after taking the relationship to the next level. As for their appearance at the Billboard Latin Music Awards, Karol teases it's going to be hot. 4:49 p.m.: We bring part of the music video to the stage, she teases off her Banana performance with Becky G at the awards ceremony. 4:42 p.m.: We're gong performing 'Con Altura,' Rosalía teases off her performance during the show with J Balvin and El Guincho. There's a lot of dancing, and I think it's going to be amazing. The 25-year-old can't help but blush over questions about a possible romance with another artist - Bad Bunny. What do you mean? He's a friend, a good friend. I love his music, she says. As for her upcoming collaboration with Alicia Keys, Rosalía says it's been fun teaching the GRAMMY winner some Spanish. She's very funny. She's a friend of mine, Rosalía shares. 16:37: I didn't think I'd get that far so quickly, Paul tells ET about his and J Balvin's song, Contra La Pared. The 46-year-old artist can't wait to get on stage. I can't wait to blazin' it, he teases. 4:33 p.m.: ET's Denny Directo and Grecia Lopez catch up with cnco on the red carpet ahead of the show, admitting they didn't expect their three nominations - or are asked to perform. We never thought we'd have three nominations... we are super happy and super happy, rave de. The Billboard Latin Music Awards will be broadcast live on Thursday from 8 p.m.m p.m. ET/5 p.m PT at Telemundo.RELATED CONTENT: Billboard Latin Music Awards 2019: How to Watch Red Carpet Arrivals at ET Live & More Marc Anthony, Becky G, Anitta, Romeo Santos and more to perform at the Billboard Latin Music Awards 2019 Billboard Latin Music Awards Nominations: The Complete List List
